

The African Activist Association presents

“The Rise and Fall of Africa’s Last Liberation Hero:
The Story of Zimbabwe and Robert Mugabe”

Wednesday January 17

12pm

10383 Bunche

Free and open to the public

Lunch Provided

Speaker

Professor Chikowero is currently working on two book projects entitled: The Politics of State (Un)making: Music, Media and Power in Zimbabwe since Independence and Tool of Empire, Technology of Self-Liberation: Radio Broadcasting and State Making in Colonial Zambia, Zimbabwe and Malawi, 1920s-1980. His first book is entitled, African Music, Power and Being in Colonial Zimbabwe (Indiana University Press, 2015).

Chikowero’s article, “A Sonic Coup: The ‘Military Touch’ that Deposed Mugabe,” is available upon request. (oseiopare@ucla.edu)

Pay-by-space and all-day ($12) parking available in lot 3
Campus map, directions, transportation options to UCLA at www.ucla.edu/map

We hope to see you at this event!