SUSAN BURTON

Founder of A New Way of Life Re-Entry Project

“Becoming Ms. Burton: From Prison to Recovery to Leading the Fight for Incarcerated Women”

Wednesday, February 21, 2018

5:30 pm—6:30 pm, UCLA School of Law Room 1347

Light refreshments will be served at 5 PM.

Following the tragic accidental death of her five-year-old son, Susan's world collapsed. Her loss snapped the final tether of resilience burdened by a past of pain and trauma. She descended into an emotional abyss of darkness and despair, yet was not offered the resources needed to heal. Without support, she turned to drugs and alcohol, which led to nearly 20 years revolving through cycles of incarceration. Drawing on her personal experiences, she founded A New Way of Life Re-Entry Project (ANWOL) in 1998, dedicating her life to helping others break the cycle of incarceration.

The event is free and open to the public. Short-term parking and daily parking ($12) are available throughout the UCLA campus. Parking Structure 2 on Hilgard Ave & Charles E. Young Drive, East is walking distance to UCLA Law. Visit www.transportation.ucla.edu for more info.

UCLA is a Smoke and Tobacco-Free campus.
